DONATE A BOOKPLATE

When you join the Friends of the Library or renew your membership, you can choose to make a tax-deductible donation through the Library's bookplate program. We will recognise your generosity with a personalised bookplate, placed in a book specially selected from the Library's recent acquisitions. This creates a permanent record of your support, or a tribute to a friend or family member.

Our bookplate donor levels are named after renowned bird illustrators whose valuable works are held in the Library:

$175 – John William Lewin (1770–1819)
$500 – John James Audubon (1785–1851)
$1000 – John Gould (1804–81)

STATE LIBRARY
VICTORIA

What's your story?

This issue celebrates arts and popular culture, from the Australian premiere in 1926 of Gustav Holst's opera Savitri, to the 1966 Australian tour by stars of the British soap opera Coronation Street; and from the career of interior designer of the mansion Labassa, Peter Hansen, to the story behind the 'State of Victoria' gown designed for Victoria's centenary celebrations of 1934–35. It takes us from local commemorations of the poet Adam Lindsay Gordon, to the educative role of photography and illustration in two 19th-century publications documenting ancient sites in Egypt and Syria. And from the pre-World War I courtship of left-wing activists Maurice Blackburn and Doris Hordern, to an account of two Melbourne countercultural bookshops established in the 1970s.
