WELCOME

The Centre for Youth Literature is a national leader in the sphere of youth literature programming and this year we are very proud to present our 12th Reading Matters. Join us as we celebrate literature and storytelling, while discussing topics as diverse as activism, personal identity, the fantastic, relationships and much more.

You will be in the presence of some of the most creative talent this country - indeed, the world - has to offer, and have access to these artists' thoughts and advice.

Enjoy your time among the YA book community - writers, readers, fans, colleagues and peers. Together we prove that truly Reading Matters!

Rebecca Henson, Reading and Literacy Development Manager
at State Library Victoria

Student Program

Thursday 1 June 2017, 10am-1pm

A celebration of all things youth literature! Reading Matters' student program is a highly anticipated event for teen readers and YA fans. Committed to a fun and diverse schedule that looks deeply at how young people engage with the world, the two concurrent sessions offer captivating speakers, group activities and book signings that will stimulate and enhance young readers' interest in books and literature.

Conference

Friday 2 June and Saturday 3 June 2017,
8.30am-5.30pm

The Reading Matters conference is a two-day program with stimulating content and thought-provoking themes, delivered by international and local high-profile authors and fresh new voices. Discover emerging authors and recommended titles, explore the latest YA trends and network with colleagues, authors and readers from across the country. Secure your spot at the Reading Matters 2017 conference and boost your expertise in this key learning area.

Public Day

Sunday 4 June 2017, 10am-4.30pm

Let your inner book nerd shine at the Reading Matters public day! Some of the best international and local YA authors will reveal their behind-the-scenes writing processes. Tap into their expertise and insights, engage with like-minded YA fans, and stock up on great books to read.

This program is subject to change.

SPEAKERS

AS King (USA) is a best-selling author whose novels include Walden Award-winning Glory O'Brien's history of the future, Los Angeles Times Book Prize-winner Ask the passengers and Michael L Printz Honor Book Please ignore Vera Dietz. Her most recent novel is Still life with tornado.

Jennifer Niven (USA) is the author of New York Times and international bestseller All the bright places, as well as many other works. She is also the founder of Germ magazine, an online literary and lifestyle magazine for teenagers. Her most recent novel is Holding up the universe.

Mariko Tamaki (CANADA) is the award-winning author of graphic novels Skim and This one summer, with Jillian Tamaki, and YA novels (You) set me on fire and Saving Montgomery Sole. Her upcoming projects include the graphic novel Laura Dean keeps breaking up with me and Supergirl: Being super.

Randa Abdel-Fattah is an award-winning author of 11 books, an academic, a former lawyer and a human rights advocate. Her most recent novel, When Michael met Mina, won the Prize for Writing for Young Adults and the People's Choice Award at the 2017 Victorian Premier's Literary Awards.

Lance Balchin studied photography at the University of Tasmania and has a Master of Arts and a Bachelor of Laws. Lance has worked in fashion photography and fine art portraiture; he also teaches adult photography and film making. His first book is the futuristic cyberpunk encyclopedia Mechanica.

Rachael Crow is the award-winning author of YA spec-fic trilogy Spark, Stray and Shield. Rachael writes, teaches and enjoys small-town life at the sunny top of New Zealand's South Island.

Alison Evans' short stories, essays and comics have been published in various Australian and international journals, magazines and zines. They are the co-editor of Concrete queers and have published three books, Long macchiatos and monsters, We go forward and Ida.

Alison Goodman is the award-winning author of the New York Times bestselling duology Eon and Eona. Her most recent novel, Lady Helen and the dark days pact, the second book in a trilogy of supernatural Regency adventures, was shortlisted for the 2017 Aurealis Awards.

Jane Harrison is a descendant of the Muruwari people and is a playwright and author. Her novel Becoming Kirrali Lewis won the 2014 Black & Write! Prize and was shortlisted for the 2016 Prime Minister's Literary Awards. Her plays include Stolen, Rainbow's end and The visitors.

Will Kostakis is an award-winning author, but his real claims to fame are a Twitter spat with Guy Sebastian and that time a member of Destiny's Child said his name. The sidekicks is his latest novel for young adults.

Jay Kristoff is the winner of two Aurealis Awards, an ABIA and last year's Gold Inky Award. He wrote the New York Times and international bestsellers The lotus war, The Illuminae files and The nevernight chronicle, and is published in over 25 countries.

Dougal MacPherson once drew a digger and a truck on a rainy Sunday afternoon to entertain his young son. Since then he has illustrated for tech websites and conferences and now, a children's book: Introducing Teddy. He shares his work on social media as '15mindrawings'.

Shivaun Plozza is the author of Frankie, a darkly funny novel about a teen willing to defy her friends, family and the law to find her missing brother. Her work has appeared in anthologies and journals including Where the shoreline used to be, ELLE Australia, Text and The Victorian writer.

Lili Wilkinson is the author of 10 novels, including Scatterheart and Green valentine. She has a PhD in creative writing and previously worked at the Centre for Youth Literature, where she established the Inky Awards and the insideadog.com.au website. Her latest novel is The boundless sublime.

Nevo Zisin is an activist, student, writer and public speaker with a particular focus on issues surrounding gender, sex and sexuality. Nevo works with children as a youth leader, running programs and workshops in schools. Finding Nevo is their first book.
